Setting up the HDL410

We keep things simple. It's why installing the HDL410 system is an easy procedure that usually takes less than an hour. Hang the two microphone and speaker bars on the wall (with just two screws and plugs each) and run Ethernet cables to the connect module. Then connect a USB cable to an in-room computer, collaboration hub or other collaboration device and you're ready.

Integrated microphone and speaker bar

Ethernet   Ethernet

Connect module
(AC powered)

Infrared remote